EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS REVISION: Fall, 2004

CATALOG DESCRIPTION: English Composition is designed to develop students' abilities to think, organize, and express their ideas clearly and effectively in writing. This course incorporates reading, research, and critical thinking. Emphasis is placed on the various forms of expository writing such as process, description, narration, comparison, analysis, persuasion, and argumentation. A research paper is required. Numerous in-class writing activities are required in addition to extended essays written outside of class.

MAJOR COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Upon successful completion of this course the student will be expected to:

1. Understand communication theory and the roles audiences play in the writing process.
2. Apply critical reading and thinking skills to the writing process.
3. Demonstrate an awareness of language as a tool for learning and communication.
4. Develop strategies for making independent, critical evaluations of student and published texts.
5. Research and critically evaluate information to produce writing with APA or MLA formal documentation, which consists of in-text citations and final list of all sources cited.
6. Apply strategies for the composition process such as drafting, collaboration, revision, and peer evaluation to produce written documents.
7. Write well-organized essays with a firm thesis and a clear introduction, body, and conclusion.
8. Engage in pre-writing activities, including narrowing a topic, generating ideas, determining the audience and the relationship between audience and content, and setting an appropriate tone.
9. Demonstrate an understanding of the various rhetorical modes, including argumentation and analysis, and apply that understanding in various writing environments, including an essay test.

10. Support a thesis statement with valid reasons and evidence.
11. Follow the conventions of standard written English, in sentence structure, punctuation, grammar and usage, and spelling.
12. Recognize and develop styles appropriate to varied writing situations.

HOW TO ACCESS THE IVY TECH STATE COLLEGE VIRTUAL LIBRARY:

The Ivy Tech Virtual Library is available to students on- and off-campus, offering full text journals and books and other resources essential for course assignments. Go to <http://www.ivytech.edu/library> and choose the link for your campus.

METHODS OF EVALUATION:

Grading procedures will be established by the instructor and will be clarified at the first class session. Students will write for evaluation at least five compositions and an essay exam. Students will write a minimum of 5,000 words excluding rough drafts during the semester. At least two compositions must include analysis and argumentation. Instructors will require that in at least one paper students will incorporate outside sources into their writing and use an appropriate style of documentation.

ACADEMIC HONESTY STATEMENT:

The College is committed to academic integrity in all its practices. The faculty value intellectual integrity and a high standard of academic conduct. Activities that violate academic integrity undermine the quality and diminish the value of educational achievement.

Cheating on papers, tests or other academic works is a violation of College rules. No student shall engage in behavior that, in the judgment of the instructor of the class, may be construed as cheating. This may include, but is not limited to, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty such as the acquisition without permission of tests or other academic materials and/or distribution of these materials and other academic work. This includes students who aid and abet as well as those who attempt such behavior.
